

Here I Stand (1 of 2)

(Verse 1)

Lord when I think of what You've done for me,
All because You loved me.

Jesus died on the Cross for me
And suffered to set me free.

So, here I stand, here I stand.

No one forced me to believe in You,
I know I'm not deceived.

That gentle voice I now know is You,
Was calling out to me,

(Chorus)

So here I am, standing here before You.

Fulfill Your plan,

'Cause I know that You have called me.

And, I know the journey's long and hard

But, this is where I want to be.

So Lord, here I stand.

Here I Stand (2 of 2)

(Verse 2)

I know the world despises You.
You said some would hate me, too.
They just aren't able to understand.
I pray Your light would shine through me.
Here I stand, here I stand.

You have called me to share the truth,
No matter what people say.
I know that some will turn me away
But, I know some will be saved.

(Chorus)

So here I am, standing here before You.
Fulfill Your plan,
'Cause I know that You have called me.
And, I know the journey's long and hard
But, this is where I want to be.
So Lord, here I stand.
